

ARIZONA WORKFORCE

EMPLOYMENT REPORT

Arizona Department of Commerce, Research Administration

January 17, 2008

Arizona's Economy Adds 10,100 Jobs in December; Jobless Rate Rises to 4.7%

Record Employment Levels Set in 5 Major Industries

Arizona's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 4.7 percent in December, up from 4.1 percent in November. Nationally, the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rose to 5 percent from 4.7 percent.

Arizona's economy experienced continued but slowing job growth by adding 10,100 nonfarm jobs in December to reach a record total of 2,760,600. The service-providing industries added 12,300 jobs while the goods-producing cluster lost 2,200 jobs.

Nine of 11 major industries gained jobs and two posted losses. Five major industries reached record levels – trade, transportation and utilities; professional and business services; educational and health services; leisure and hospitality; and other services. Losses occurred in the construction and government sectors. Government lost a seasonally expected 1,600 jobs. Most losses occurred in local government education (-1,300). Seasonal losses in local and state education are typical during December and January. State education reduced jobs by 900. Federal government added 400 jobs. Professional and business services employment expanded by 2,400.

Within this industry, professional, scientific and technical services accounted for the bulk of the gain (+2,400). Employment services had a loss of 800; services to buildings and dwellings showed a decrease of 200; and business and support services added 100 jobs.

Leisure and hospitality added 400 jobs in December, returning to near seasonal norms to reach a new record of 283,900. Arts, entertainment and recreation had a 400-job loss. Food services and drinking places accounted for the majority of job gains (+800).

Educational and health services gained 2,100 jobs in the month to arrive at a record of 308,500 jobs. Over-the-year, this major industry added 11,400 jobs. Similar to November, the majority of job gains were in health care and social assistance (+1,800). Within health care, ambulatory health care services gained 700 jobs. Educational services gained 300.

Construction (-3,100) had losses in all subsectors last month similar in total to its November decline. Specialty trades experienced the greatest losses among the major construction sectors (-2,300). Notably, revised figures show that construction had more losses (an additional 1,900) in November than previously reported. Over-the-year, construction lost 24,400 jobs.

Other services had an increase of 500 nonfarm jobs, reaching a record level of 108,200.

Despite current instability in the financial activities sector, financial activities employment increased by 900 in December, offsetting the 1,100 loss in November. Credit intermediation and related activities picked up 400 jobs.

Manufacturing experienced an increase of 800 jobs in December. Nondurable goods manufacturing gained a seasonally expected number of jobs (+1,000). Durable-goods manufacturing was down by 200. Manufacturing has had over-the-year losses for the majority of the year.

Information gained 100 jobs in the telecommunications sector.

Natural resources and mining continued its steady rate of growth by adding 100 jobs. This industry added 1,900 jobs over-the-year, for growth of 18.1 percent.

Trade, transportation and utilities added 7,500 jobs. Trade was the largest contributor, adding 6,200. Within trade, most sectors either posted gains and only a small percent remained flat. Wholesale trade gained 1,500. Retail trade came in with an additional 4,700 jobs, following a gain in November. The air and truck transportation sectors both had gains of 100 jobs.

In conclusion, Arizona's economy continued to expand by adding 10,100 nonfarm jobs in December, but the rate of expansion has slowed. Moderate gains occurred in nine of 11 major industries. While the holiday season brought an additional 4,700 jobs to retail trade and helped leisure and hospitality set a record level for employment, rates of growth in most major industries are down from levels seen a year ago. The Arizona seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rose to 4.7 percent in December (still below the U.S. rate of 5). When compared to December 2006, Arizona's economy expanded by 35,400 jobs, representing 12-month growth of 1.3 percent, down from over-the-year growth of 4.6 percent one year earlier.

Note: The January 2008 employment report will be released Thursday, February 28, to allow time for the annual benchmarking process to be completed. Usually, the employment report is released about two weeks after national data are published. However, every year ADOC, Research Administration, delays the January release to allow time to incorporate the benchmarking of the previous two years' nonfarm employment data, as well as the labor force figures (e.g., unemployment). See below for exact time and location.

ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

— Equal Opportunity Employer/Program —

Under Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI & VII), and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, the Department prohibits discrimination in admissions, programs, services, activities, or employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability. The Department must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means if necessary, the Department must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that the Department will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. To request this document in alternative format or for further information about this policy, contact the Department of Economic Security, Division of Developmental Disabilities ADA Coordinator at 602 542-6825; TTY/TDD Services: 7-1-1.
